

VIOLET

Bakers Assistant

Reports to: Owner, Head baker, sous chef, general manager

Works alongside: Head baker, Sous chef, shop staff

The Baker's Assistant will work closely alongside the Head Chef across the Violet Kitchen in preparing celebration and counter cakes as well as a range of savoury foods. Experience in a professional kitchen is desired, but a passion for baking is essential.

This is a full time role with five shifts a week including some weekend work.

Quality and cleanliness standards

- Ensuring Violet's day to day production is in accordance with targets and schedules set by the head baker and/or owner, and maintaining Violet's quality standards at all times
- Complying with Health and Safety regulations within the food preparing areas
- Level 2 Safety and Hygiene is required for this position.

Kitchen maintenance

- Following opening and closing duties in accordance with the guidelines in the kitchen manual.
- Undertaking the daily cleaning of the food preparation areas and adhering to Food Hygiene regulations within the kitchen
- Working in an orderly fashion with your team to ensure the kitchen and dish area remain tidy and uncluttered

Teamwork

- Willingly take direction from superiors, and working with your coworkers to ensure smooth and efficient service at all times, and particularly at peak business times
- Communicating clearly with your coworkers and maintaining a good working relationship with them. At Violet we understand the important and value of clear, open and direct communication between all members of the Violet family
- Finally, the nature of Violet and it's small team is such that flexibility is paramount and this requires employees to cover for others if necessary

Other duties

- Undertaking additional tasks and duties, as directed by the owner, head baker or general manager
- Undertaking training, as directed by the owner and/or the head baker
- We expect you to complete all assigned duties and, while you will usually finish on time, you will sometimes be required to work overtime. Please do this with a positive attitude
- You may be required to work in a different department of Violet, i.e. assisting Claire with freelance work, styling and/or event

To apply please email your CV and Cover Letter to info@violetcakes.com